Twenty-First World Peace Maha Mai Maitri Puja (Nepal, 4th-10th April 2027)

November 6, 2026

Blessings have been received from the revered Mahasambodhi MaitriNath Guru for the Twenty-first World Peace Maha Mai Maitri Puja, to be held from April 4–10 2027 in Nepal, and to be successfully celebrated with grandeur and dignity. Accordingly, this sacred Maha Mai Maitri Puja and Prayer will be benevolently organised by the Central Working Committee of Bodhi Shrawan Dharma Sangha Nepal.

With hearts full of universal maitribhav feeling, profound worship and reverence will be offered to the Supreme Paramatma and Divine Beings, Who embody liberation, through mantra recitation, ascetic practice, and meditation. These sacred practices will be dedicated to the establishment of World Peace, the spiritual uplift & liberation of all souls, and the spiritual purification of oneself and others.

All members of the Maitri Dharma Sangha family residing in Nepal and abroad, along with all devotees and followers who hold deep respect and faith in spirituality, are warmly invited, in a spirit of universal loving-friendliness, to attend this most sacred and meritorious event, gain boundless spiritual merit, and help others do the same. Information about the event venue will be announced in due course.

May universal loving-friendliness bring auspiciousness to all!
